RECREATIONAL TABLE TENNIS SPORTS DAY / Horgos

Project "Integrating digital competences into sport for disabled and recreational table tennis players"

On January 26, 2024, starting at 5:00 p.m., the Digipingpong project's Recreational Table Tennis Sports Day event took place at the Table Tennis Club in Horgos. The event was attended by members of the host club of Horgos, coaches, 25 interested parties and representatives of the media.

The participants were greeted by József Dávid, president of the Horgos club. After that, the program of Sports Day began. In the first part, under the guidance of 2 coaches, basic sports techniques were presented and practiced both in groups and individually. In the second part, the program continued with the introduction of table tennis with the participation of the players of the Horgos club: competition exercises, match situations, lightning tournaments and skill competitions. The final part of the Sports Day was the evaluation of the event, and the participants were served a dinner in the Hunting House in Horgos.

In answer to questions asked by media representatives, József Dávid said that thanks to this project, the club in Horgos has become much more popular, and the sport itself has become popular. More children have joined the work of the club, we are already working with more than 30 children. With the help of the project, we gained knowledge and information from other partners, such as those from Szeged and Senta, that helped us in our work, and we got to know coaches who developed the knowledge of the children. Titusz Rekecki, one of the club's coaches, said that table tennis has become very popular in Horgos. Through the Digipingpong project, we managed to give even more momentum to the club and made a lot of friends with its implementation. From the youngest to the oldest, this sport is available to everyone, which can be incorporated into our everyday lives as part of a healthy lifestyle.

One of the important objectives of the Recreational Sports Day was to support people in developing their own healthy lifestyle and personal development in the field of sport by emphasizing the importance of lifelong sports.

At the beginning and during the program, József Dávid, president of the club in Horgos, coach Titusz Rekecki, and some participants made statements separately to the employees of Pannon RTV, Info TV, Magyar Szó, among others.
